Welcome in the sports town Riesa

Riesa is a town with 36,221 inhabitants in the Free State of Saxony, Germany. It is located at the river Elbe, approx. 50 km northwest of Dresden.

Within the last few years Riesa became known as a dedicated sports town. A variety of high-carat sporting events and international championships contributed to it. Enjoy a walk in the lovely Riesa municipal park at the Elbe, discover the old monastery with the modern Elbaquarium and the zoo. Admire the "Elbquelle" - the biggest steel sculpture of Europe. Get familiar in the municipal museum with the interesting history of the region.

Familiarise yourself with the history of the much loved pasta in Germany's unique noodle museum. Numerous cafés and restaurants invite to stay. Thanks to its favourable position, Riesa is the ideal starting point for expeditions into he Saxon hinterland.
